

Intensive Organizing Training for Union Activists

UPTE-CWA 9119 Organizing Institute

January 22-24, 2011 * UCLA

The Organizing Institute provides intensive training for activists to learn the skills necessary to be effective union organizers. Participants learn one-on-one communication skills, as well as campaign and strategic planning skills. These skills are crucial for activists to be able to participate in organizing campaigns and help build the labor movement.
